SITES Impact: Education and Outreach

Recommendations on Sustainable Practices by Federal Agencies for Designed Landscapes
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Water</th>
<th>Soil</th>
<th>Plants</th>
<th>Materials</th>
<th>Human Health</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

The image contains images representing Water, Soil, Plants, Materials, and Human Health.
Novus Headquarters

St. Charles, Missouri
Commercial
9 acres

New model for corporate campus

CERTIFIED

WILDLIFE CORRIDOR

Landscaping improvements within Missouri Research Park strengthen the link between the Missouri River and inland trail ways, thus providing a protected corridor for wildlife to move among habitats and ecosystems.

© 2013 Sustainable Sites Initiative™
Novus International Headquarters Campus
The Charlotte Brody Discovery Garden

Durham, North Carolina
Open Space – Garden / Arboretum
1 acre

CERTIFIED

© 2013 Sustainable Sites Initiative™
Cornell University’s Mann Library Entrance

Ithaca, New York
Institutional / Educational
<1 acre
Hunts Point Landing
Bronx, New York
Open Space - Park
1.5 acres

BEFORE

© 2013 Sustainable Sites Initiative™
Hunts Point Landing
Bronx, New York
Open Space - Park
1.5 acres

© 2013 Sustainable Sites Initiative™
Scenic Hudson's Long Dock Park

Location:
Beacon, New York

Size & Type of Project:
14 acres, Open space - Park
Victoria Garden Mews
Morton Arboretum: Meadow Lake & Main Parking Lot

Lisle, Illinois
Open Space – Garden / Arboretum
27 acres
Cleveland’s Public Garden

Cleveland, Ohio
Open Space – Garden / Arboretum
10 acres
SWT Design Campus

St. Louis, Missouri
Commercial
<1 acre

CERTIFIED

© 2013 Sustainable Sites Initiative™
Private Home – San Francisco
Helianthus angustifolius (swamp sunflower) with Muhlenbergia capillaris (pink muhly grass)
VEGETATED SWALE

CURB CUT
LANDSCAPE FOR LIFE™
YOUR GUIDE TO HARNESING NATURE’S POWER FOR A HEALTHY, BEAUTIFUL GARDEN

Based on the principles of the Sustainable Sites Initiative™